

- [1] 1 Down. Pricing policy that sets price low for a new product.
- [2] 6 Down. Charging different prices to similar customers in similar situations.
- [3] 2 Down. Point at which sales revenue equals costs & expenses.
- [4] 3 Down. Pricing policy that sets a high price for a new product.
- [5] 4 Down. Calculation used to determine relative profitability of a product.
- [6] 5 Down. Everyone charged same price.
- [7] 7 Down. Item priced at or below cost to draw customers into a store
- [8] 8 down. A company's percentage of total sales in a given market.
- [9] 9 Across. Pricing technique that helps create an illusion for customers.
- [10] 10 Down. Competitors agreeing on prices.
- [11] 11 Across. The Value placed on money